

Hi Shaase,

Thanks for selling us the foot detox. What a product, I have to say that we did not understand the methodology and were naturally a bit skeptical but the results were beyond our expectations. We did a test with out placing our feet in the bowl and the result was as hoped...a lesser mess.

We produce educational DVD's on topics that are of special interest. We did not buy this foot detox to produce a DVD on "the results" - but having seen it for ourselves, we think it would be of interest to skeptical people who are thinking about "taking the plunge".

We would like to ask your permission to use the detox machine we purchased from you in a new DVD production. It would be in real time - showing the process from beginning to yucky end, without really much editorial comment. Sort of a "see for yourself!"

We can, and if OK with you - put your name, the machine and contact details... in the DVD "credits" by way of a thank you. This could also bring you more sales.

Alternatively, you may simply grant us the permission to use your machine with the understanding that we DO NOT deliberately promote your particular product, and just refer to it as one of "many on the market that all basically do the same thing".

We will be making our money on the sales of our DVD's. Apart from using your excellent machine, we want nothing from you but your permission to use this particular foot detox in the DVD production.

Thanks again for your excellent and worthwhile product. I hope you do really well with your business and that our efforts can assist you further. Please let us know as soon as you can, many thanks. You can check out there eBay store at <http://stores.ebay.com/Lightning-Opal-Etc> where they sell this DVD and many other informational DVD's.
